

179 Little Lake Drive • Ann Arbor, MI 48103

Tel: 734/996-0100

Fax: 734/996-1008

Website: hbawc.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 25, 2008

CONTACT: Shaun M. Murray
SMURRAY@HBAWC.COM
734.996.0100

2008 Scholarship Recipients Announced

ANN ARBOR, MI – The Washtenaw Home Builders Association Foundation announces the recipients of the 2008 Annual HBAWC Scholarships. Chosen for academic merit and commitment to a career in the construction industry, these high school seniors represent the best of Washtenaw County. This year the WHBA Foundation awarded scholarships totaling $6,000.

This year's top recipients are:

- Nagi Kahala, senior at Huron High, awarded $1,500 scholarship. Son of Raya Kalaha.
- Danny Dresselhouse, senior at Pioneer High, awarded $1,250 scholarship. Son of Bob and Carlin Dresselhouse.

Recipients of $750:

- James Linn, senior at Huron High son of Peter and Jodie Linn.
- Emanuel Gambos, senior at Ypsilanti High son of Nicolaie Gombos.
- Christopher Gala, senior at Pioneer High son of Dennis and Barbara Gala

Recipients of $500:

- Mark Reiber, senior at Ypsilanti High son of Thomas Reiber.
- Ryan Lucchesi, senior at Pioneer High son of Steven Lucchesi and Tracey Danuloff.

##

The Home Builders Association of Washtenaw County, chartered in 1956, represents over 750 member firms and individuals who are committed to upholding the standards and professionalism within the home building industry. Affiliated with the Michigan Association of Home Builders and the National Association of Home Builders, the Association provides information and education to members and to the community, as well as a forum for sharing ideas.

As the voice of the building industry, the HBA strongly promotes home ownership, private property rights, and the free enterprise system.