

The Staples Family Center

The Staples Family Center is a 90-Day drug-free homeless shelter program operated by the Salvation Army of Washtenaw County. It is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Guests may stay for up to 90 days and receive free board and lodging. While staying at the Center, each guest is assigned a case worker to help them address a whole range of issues, with the ultimate goals of personal self sufficiency and permanent housing.
