

131 Judd Road, Milan Township: York

48 high school student builders with some assistance from professional craftsmen have worked hard to complete this roomy 2,275 square foot ranch home. A centrally located kitchen opens to a spacious vaulted family room which has access to a back porch. A large master bedroom suite located at the opposite end of the two other bedrooms and bath. A mudroom/laundry area includes an additional half bath. Also located on the 1.2 acre lot is a pole barn that matches the house style. Quality work is emphasized in this educational setting and is evident throughout the house.
