SUBDIVISION: THE CEDARS OF DEXTER

Setting a new standard in senior living, United Methodist Retirement Communities is pleased to present The Cedars of Dexter, a picturesque community for adults age 60 and better. The Cedars of Dexter offers spacious Craftsman-style luxury cottages set in a serene, wooded landscape, just west of downtown Dexter near the Huron River and Mill Creek, on property adjoining historic Gordon Hall.

Our showcase home, “The Stickley,” has two bedrooms with 1,510 square-foot of living space. This home is full of top-of-the-line features such as granite countertops, 9-foot ceilings, walk-in closets, and more. In addition, The Cedars of Dexter offers a variety of amenities geared to active seniors, such as a clubhouse featuring fine and casual dining options, a fitness center, paved walking paths, life-learning studio, and special events space. The Cedars of Dexter provides the perfect balance of active lifestyle options and maintenance-free living.
